

Department of Social Anthropology

HSPS UNDERGRADUATES Part IIA

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY 2022-22

Further course information is available online at www.socanth.cam.ac.uk

5 October, 2021	Michaelmas: Full Term commences
6 October, 2021	Introduction to the Haddon library: 11.30 – 12pm, Zoom Social Anthropology Induction for Part IIA: 2.00 – 2.45pm, Mill Lane room 9
7 October, 2021	Lectures Commence (University wide).
3 December, 2021	Michaelmas: Full Term ends
20 January, 2022	Lent: Lectures Commence
1 March, 2022 (tbc)	Compulsory SAN Dissertation Planning Workshop (Workshop 1) at 2-5pm
18 March, 2022	Lent: Full Term ends
28 April, 2022	Easter: Lectures Commence
29 April, 2022 (tbc)	Compulsory SAN Dissertation Planning Workshop (Workshop 2), time tbc
3 May, 2022 (tbc)	Part II Exam Assessment and Marking Criteria Workshop for all those taking Social Anthropology papers , at 10-11am
6 May, 2022	Deadline for FORM1 PROPOSAL TO OFFER A SAN DISSERTATION to be submitted by all IIA students intending to do a Dissertation (see Dissertations section below for further information).
End May – early June 2021	Start of Examinations : exact dates are published on the www.cambridgestudents.cam.ac.uk website in Easter term 2022; your college will provide you your candidate number and an exam timetable for you.
17 June, 2021	Easter: Full Term ends

DISSERTATION - Part IIA students

- End of Michaelmas Discuss ideas for a dissertation with your DoS early in your IIA year! You need to plan this, attend the compulsory Dissertation training workshops and have a supervisor to supervise you on an approved topic, so that needs some planning and an early start to help you get it on your way.
- End of Lent Term You and your DoS should aim to agree on a topic and prospective supervisor now. When your DoS has arranged it, you should meet your supervisor and begin reading for your dissertation. Start to make travel plans, if appropriate. You have to complete FORM1 Proposal to Offer a Dissertation soon after you return to Cambridge in Easter Term.
- Easter Term Start of Easter Term – make sure you have typed up a draft of the SAN FORM1 Proposal to Offer a Dissertation – various people need to read it, agree with it and sign it (e.g. your assigned Supervisor, your Director of Studies) so make sure you do this early to give them time to consider your plans. The Deadline is on 6 May, 2022.